VISA ON ARRIVAL IN INDIA

The government of India will provide visa on arrival to citizens of 18 countries from October 2009. They will also be allowed to avail of multiple visas with five-year validity at the airport.

Visa on arrival will be available to citizens of the US, Japan, France, Germany, New Zealand, Belgium, Spain, Sweden, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Finland, South Korea, Vietnam, Chile, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil and the UK.

A liberal visa regime will facilitate business visits to India.

The visa on arrival scheme may also be considered for countries where Indian travellers already enjoy the facility. These include Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Maldives, the Philippines and Hong Kong.
